1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Paul Neils on 09/21/04.

The application has been amended as follows:

Replace abstract with attached sheet.

In claims:

Claim 6. Apparatus for locating, in a reference plane, an edge disposed at the junction between two surfaces by means of the method according to of claim 1, said apparatus comprising at least one transmitter and at least two receivers disposed in the reference plane, said transmitter having a transmit solid angle making it possible for at least some waves transmitted by said transmitter to reach both of two surfaces on either side of said edge, said receivers being disposed in the reference plane such that one of the receivers essentially receives the waves reflected by one of the surfaces while the other receiver essentially receives the signals reflected by the other surface, the positions of said transmitter and of said receivers in the reference plane being known by construction.

Claim 11. ~~A method of guiding a moving element relative to an edge disposed at the junction between two substantially plane surfaces, said method including a location stage during which the edge is located by means of the method according to claim 1. A~~ location method according to claim 1 further comprising a step of guiding a moving element relative to an edge disposed at junction between two substantially plane surfaces, wherein said step of guiding includes a location stage during which the edge is located.

Claim 12. A guiding location method according to claim 11, wherein said location stage is performed iteratively while the moving element is being guided relative to the edge.

Claim 13. A guiding location method according to claim 12, wherein said moving element is a step on a rail vehicle and the edge is the edge coping of a platform, said step supporting a single transmitter and two receivers disposed in a plane perpendicular to the longitudinal axis of the rail vehicle, the receivers being disposed on either side of Claim 14. A guiding location method according to claim 13, wherein, when the location method does not make it possible to locate the platform edge coping, the travel times of the waves transmitted by the transmitter and received by the receivers after being reflected off the platform are compared to determine whether the step is situated above or below the platform edge coping.

2. The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner and agreed upon by applicant: Figures 1 and 2 are label as –Prior Art–. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these above agreed upon drawing changes.

Art Unit: 2863

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the cited prior art does not teach a method of locating an edge that is disposed at the junction between two surfaces said method comprising stages (c) - (e) for analyzing the energy of the signal received by each receiver to determine the value of the angle of inclination; computing the position in reference plane of point of impact of waves on each surface; and locating said edge in the reference plane by computing the point corresponding to the intersection of the straight lines passing through the two points of impact, as claimed. Furthermore, the cited prior art does not teach a step of guiding element relative to an edge disposed at the junction as disclosed in claim 11.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
